NOVACARE LEAVE AND ATTENDANCE POLICY

Document status: Hypothetical internal company document. This document is designed for NovaCare's home-maintenance service model and should be reviewed against applicable Sri Lankan employment, privacy, occupational safety and other legal requirements before operational use.

Purpose

This policy establishes NovaCare's expectations regarding attendance, punctuality, working schedules and employee leave. It supports reliable service delivery while recognizing employees' lawful leave entitlements.

Attendance

Employees must attend scheduled shifts and be ready to perform assigned duties at the required start time. Field employees must allow sufficient travel time to reach customer locations within the assigned service window.

Notification of Absence

An employee who cannot attend work must notify the designated supervisor or coordinator as soon as reasonably possible and provide the information required by company procedure. Failure to follow notification requirements may be addressed through the applicable process.

Leave Requests

Planned leave should be requested in advance through the approved company process. Approval should consider operational requirements while respecting applicable statutory entitlements.

Sick Leave

Employees who are unable to work due to illness should notify the company promptly and provide supporting documentation where required by law or company policy. NovaCare should handle health-related information confidentially.

Annual and Other Leave

Annual leave and other statutory or company-provided leave should be administered in accordance with applicable Sri Lankan law and the employee's contractual terms. HR should maintain accurate leave records.

Punctuality

Repeated lateness can disrupt customer appointments and affect other employees. Managers should discuss recurring attendance issues with employees, understand relevant circumstances and apply the appropriate corrective process consistently.

Field Assignment Changes

Employees must not abandon or materially change an assigned customer job without notifying the responsible coordinator, except where immediate action is required for safety.

Records

Attendance and leave records must be accurate, access-controlled and retained according to applicable legal and company requirements.
